

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title : Robotics Global Trainee
Location : CN/SE/DE/US
Function : R&D/ Project Engineering or Management/ Sales & Marketing/ Service/ Quality & OPEX/ Production or Production Engineering/ Finance

1. JOB Description

Trainee Program Objective: To fashion global function and business leaders with the capacity to lead functional teams or P&L accounts and grow the business capacity in the evolving market

Position Objective: As a Global BU Trainee, learn ABB's way of working and the Robotics business, be open to work in different geographies and work on different project assignments in various functional areas before taking up a final placement and taking charge of a functional area, unit or team in ABB

Main Responsibilities & Tasks:

- Learn ABB domain, technology and processes
- Work with business and function leaders to explore different management styles
- Be open to try any presented opportunity to learn the business and work in different environments
-

2. JOB Specification

Education: Masters degree – any field of Engineering or Management

Work Experience: ~ 1 year experience; internship/projects or short work experience in R&D, Project Engineering or Management, Sales & Marketing, Service, Quality & OPEX, Production or Production Engineering, Finance

Language Requirement: proficiency in written and spoken English

Competency Requirements:

- Leadership skills, People management skills, team work skills
- Good conceptual thinking and analytical ability
- Strong on planning and risk management